event, a race for 2-year-old maidens that never had been placed in a race, on Wednesday last. A field of fifteen sported silk, but Schreiber feared none of his colt's rivals. In his work Otto Stifei had shown himself to be a pretty good colt, and Schreiber's money backed him from 16 to 1 down to 5 to 2. The German imparted his confidence to his friends and they got aboard, too.

Such a cashing of lickets there would have been! But Buchanan, on whom they banked to get away sharply with the colt, upset all their hopes by breaking almost last. Possibly the colt was very green and slow to commence, anyhow the big field swept on, and the heavily-played fevorite was away back and on the outside. He had to run all around the big field to get near the front, and the effort and the lost grund he had to make up proved too much for him in four and a half turlongs.

EVEA G. WON BOULEVARD STAKE.

Daughter of Juvenal Led All the Way and Easily Beat Monsieur Beaucaire.

MAG NOLIN BADLY RIDDEN.

Favorite in Fifth Race Ran Third, While Folies Bergeres, Heavily Played, Could Not Land the Money.

Mrs. James Coffey's chestnut mare, Evea G. (Juvenal-Sister Geneva), won the Boulevard Stakes at Delmar yesterday. Her price was 8 to 5. She led all the way and won easily.

Shea gave her a perfect and well-judged ride. Monsieur Beaucaire, at 3 to 1, ran a good second. He could not make the sharp turns very well and lost ground at each of them. Pourquoi Pas at 8 to 1 was third. She ran 2 good race.

The second went to Nearest at 2s. Macboth set the pace to the last sixteenth. Nearest followed closely. She beat him in the stretch run.

The third race was won by The Bobby Kunja led, hard held, for a half, thu Doctor Hart passed her and cut her off-The Bobby ran over Hart in the last quarter and won eased up. Kunja took a grip on life in the stretch and closed fast. She was not shown and can run twenty lengths faster than she ran yesterday.

Throw her race out.

Wreath of Ivy won the fifth event. Folies Bergeres was backed by the wise yet, as if she was in, though Atlas, Mag Nolin and Wreath of Ivy all had bearen her every time and every way they met. Mag Nolin looked like a 1-to-2 shot. The books laid 8 to 5. Atlas, who bear Folies: a week ago in a fair trial, was 10 to 1, Folies 2 to 1.

HOW THEY DEAT MAG NOLIN. HOW THEY BEAT MAG NOLIN.

Every one took up at the start. A crab like Lady Free Enight led for a quarter the first eighth in :13%. The dogs ran the first eighth in 13%. The dogs ran that fast yesterday. Folies soon got into the lead and it weemed in for her. But she swung wide an the stretch turn. So did wreath of Iry and Mag Nolin. They actually couls not "shoo" Folies it. She was not god enough. Wreath of Iry ran off with scully and beat her easily. Austin let so of Mag Nolin in the last eighth and she was running over horses at the end. Atlas was back in the rear maying feothell all the way. It was a pretty race. Lorne, against whom the "attraordinary loss price of 7 to 1 was laid, won easily from Charles C., an 8-to-1 shot. FOREHAND SHOULD WIN THIRD.

Rennett's Colt Can Lose, but Will.

Have to Be Ridden Like Mag Noila.

Forehand in the third race at Delmar today can lose if he is ridden as Mag Noila.

The fourth race should be an excellent
one. It seems to lie between Taby Tosa and Albula. With a nice rider up, Taby will be very hard to beat. It will be his weight, track and distance. His race in the mud may dull him a bit, but he is game and true. Albula can go a route if good and should be second sure. Beaucairé ran a good race yesterday, but the sharp turns bothered him a good deal. He sharp turns bothered him a good deal. He sharp turns bothered him a good race Wednesday that he ought to repeat. He is high in fiesh and scarce was ready for the race he won, yet he ran the fastest seven furlongs of the meeting. He will be favorite, and that will be against him.
Allopath is a real good horse who can run
a mile in 1:40 this way rigged any time.
He was second in 1:23% not long ago.
Glennevis is also a shifty kind among platers, but has not had an out in some time. Water Tower, a fine looker, ran high in flesh and scarce was ready for the race he won, yet he ran the fastest seven furlongs of the meeting. He will be favorite, and that will be against him. Allopath is a real good horse who can run a mile in 1:40 this way rigged any time. He was second in 1:38½ not long ago. Glennevis is also a shifty kind among platers, but has not had an out in some time. Water Tower, a fine looker, ran many good races in England and the East, but is a bad actor at the post. Last time out he just would not break. Bengal's mark, this way rigged; is 1:28½ McKenna ran in 1:28½ on Wednesday. That ought to beat Bengal, who was sick in the summer and who has not been out in almost mer and who has not been out in almost three months.

JIGGER HAS A CHANCE. Montana Peeress is so good just now card. Optional has a chance to beat her, but she should readily dispose of the others. Jigger ran some nice races in Canada and might be in the money. On his races he ranks about Four Leaf Clover's class. that she should win the last event on the BUGLEHORN OR VOLNEY. The two first races are hard to bet on Buglehorn had an easy race last time, is PEPPER DICK SHOULD WIN. Pepper Dick should land the second event. He was badly handled last time. yet won with great ease.

He meets a better lot to-day. Maghoni ran as good a race as Dave Sommers last time she met that good horse. How would Sommers look in here with 89 pounds up? That is how Maghoni is rigged. Too far for Sid Silver. Star Gazer has a chance.

GOSSIP OF THE QUARTERSTRETCH. Races of Mag Nolin, Folies Bergeres. Wreath of Ivy and Atlas Compared. Appearances frequently are deceptive, circumstantial evidence often bad, judgment often erring. Yet Atlas, who beat Folles Bergeres last time they met and same way weighted, was 10 to 1 in the betting and Folies 12 to 5.

Last time Magnolin met Folies Bergeres, 105 on each, Magnolin led and beat Folles los on each, Magnolin led and beat Folies in a gallop by four lengths. She gave her a twenty-pound beating. Folies Bergeres was the only horse in the fifth race yesterday played. On her races with Wreath of Ivy. Magnolin and Atlas those three figured to beat her sure as death.

Atlas beat her at five furlongs, Foliles's distance, previous time they met.

Magnolin, a filly whose forte is speed, took fourteen seconds to run the first eighth of a mile and 12½ to run the last eighth.

Magnolin swung wide into the stretch, when she is a natural rail runner, and Jockey Austin could have saved six lengths when Folies Bergeres and Wreath of Ivy went wide. Austin had the pace in front of him, too, Where was the speed of the fifth race when Lady Free Knight led for the first quarter in 25.

On July 23 Magnolin took up 115 pounds and ran faster than she did yesterday, when she had 116 up. Two months improves a 2-year-old a good deal at this time of year. Every time previous to year of rolles Bergeres she

Paul Miles, who won the last race with Loone yesterday, is not often heard of as a smart trainer. Yet he has campaigned two cheap platers. Loone and Cogswell, two cheap platers. Loone and Cogswell, for years; won with them everywhere and at all sorts of prices. He races them winter and summer from Maine to California and back again. Both of them have bad legs and are small horses, but they carry weight and win. Either can run a mile in 1:49 any time he is fit. Miles can win owners' handicap races with them or races for gentlemen riders. With two platers worth perhaps $1.90 all told he has made a small fortune every year. To his credit be it said, he races them well, too. He never was in a judge's stand for either.

In speaking of crack trainers, Joyners, Hildreths, Shieldses, etc., do not forget the man with the two platers, P. J. Miles. Phil Bollinger, usually a keen bookmaker, let them stick him on Loone yesterday. er, let them stick him on Loone yesterday.
Loone, who can run a mile in 1:40 on any track where it can be run, was in with a miserable lot of dogs. Baronet was favorite. The books laid 7 to 1 against a 1-to-3 shot. The name of his rider. Foley, was unknown. Foley rode a confident race, got off well and led to the three-furiong ground. He was so confident that he let Charles C. and Baronet pass him. but he came on in the stretch under a nice, clever ride and won by a neck, with his ears pricked.

The wise Mr. Elliott seems to be losing form. He let True Blue bluff Dave Sommers out of the first race yesterday, stratched and gave Curley Brown Sheehan to ride True Blue. That horse got off running, had every chance in the world, yet could not make good. Dave Sommers would have wol in a trot, and Mr. Elliott would have been several hundred-dollars to the good.

They say that Folies Bargeres is not a mudder. Mayhao not. Ben Adkins is, however and she beat him in deep mud. To be sure, that was his day to run out and she got him by a nose. Adkins was fit, for he won three days afterwards in mud, and from good colts. WILSON RODE FOUR WINNERS.

By Ways Captured the Handicap in a Neck Finish With Hargis. Chicago, Sept. 24.-The riding of Jockey L. Wilson was the feature of to-day's or-dinary racing at Hawthorne.
